

Case Study - Residential

Client

Faraday Property Management

Project Name

Allen Mansions

Duration

14 Weeks

Description

This project in the heart of Kensington involved the external repair and redecoration work to the front elevation of the front block (together with the left-hand flank and right-hand flank stepped returns) and the rear elevation of the rear block (above the garage flat roof) of this prestigious residential building whilst occupied.

Contract Administrator:

Faraday Property Management Ltd

Architect:

Faraday Property Management Ltd

Quantity Surveyor:

Faraday Property Management Ltd

M&E Consultant:

Faraday Property Management Ltd

Structural Engineer:

Faraday Property Management Ltd

Testimonial

We have worked for Faraday Property Management for a number of years and all the projects that we have been awarded has been through competitive tendering.

Faraday's place the highest importance on the delivery of high quality works to time and budget with the minimum of disruption to their clients. We hope that our continued appointment by Faraday's means that we achieve those high standards demanded.

Peter Bootes,
Head of Business Development

